

Colour is a wonderful thing.

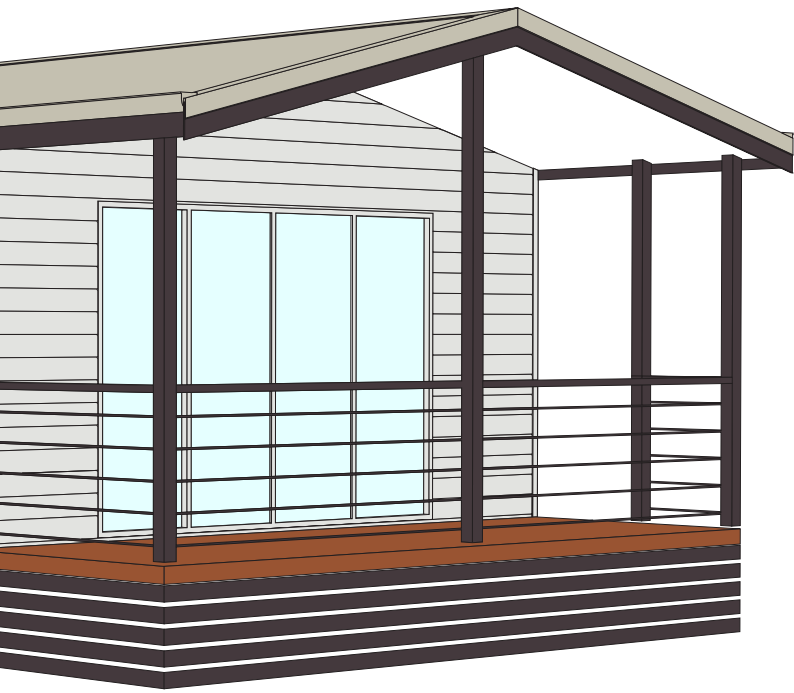

It is an expression of your personality and tells an unspoken story.
The choice of colours for your new cabin can create a unique ambience and tone.

This booklet offers some exterior colour options to give you a starting point for your next project.

Use these schemes as a starting point to find colours that suit your tastes. One of our design consultants will then help guide you through the final choices.

Note: On screen and printed colours will differ from real life.
